

Departure of Mr. Pierre Ouellet, from the Secretariat to the Cree Nation Abitibi-Témiscamingue Economic Alliance

Rouyn-Noranda, June 5, 2019 – As part of the North and its Logistics Conference organized by the Secretariat to the Cree Nation Abitibi-Témiscamingue Economic Alliance, the Executive Director of the Secretariat, Mr. Pierre Ouellet announces his departure after more than 16 years at the helm of the Secretariat. All those years devoted to the economic and social development of our regions, including the Crees, the people of Abitibi-Témiscamingue and the residents of Jamésie and Nunavik.

"It is not without a twinge of heart, but with great pride and a sense of accomplishment that I announce that I have made the decision to leave the bar of the Secretariat. I leave the Secretariat with a well-known reputation, with projects, challenges and a great prospect for the future." says Pierre Ouellet.

Dr. Ted Moses O.Q., President of the Secretariat's Board of Directors, says: "The Secretariat's members of the Board of Directors join me in thanking Pierre for his exceptional services and we wish him success in his projects. Pierre managed the Secretariat through hardships and faced many challenges. He contributed in making the Secretariat sustainable."

Mr. Ouellet's term of office will end on June 30, 2019, after which time the Director General position will be assumed by Chantal Hamelin.

About the Secretariat

The Secretariat, created in 2002, places a high value on the principle of mutual respect, good business relationships and understanding the context of Northern Quebec. The importance of the role played by the Secretariat is respectful integration of entrepreneurs eager to widen their horizons.
